The attached document was prepared by the [redacted] [redacted] under contract to the National Photographic Interpretation Center. The evaluation scheme contained herein is the contractor's concept of image evaluation and has not, as yet, been adopted by the NPIC.

The NPIC is currently testing the proposed evaluation techniques individually as well as in a total system. We at NPIC consider the document to have immediate value as a training aid, a reference base, and as a source of evaluation techniques to be exercised on an ad-hoc basis.

Your comments and mutual discussion regarding the potential application of data available via the processes described is encouraged. The NPIC contact with regard to this matter is
